"I smoked dope every day for twenty years. I thought I was pretty slick. I could smoke while working. I could get high and still run my company. I could pour concrete. I could roof a building. I felt like I could do anything. But it ruined my marriage. I didn't even realize it until years after my wife left me. But the dope ruined my marriage because it made me content. Nothing could bother me. Her feelings didn't bother me. Her needs didn't bother me. The dope put an emotional cover over what should have been obvious. I told myself that if I didn't see the problem, then it didn't qualify as a problem. All I ever did was give her advice. I never asked for it. I never once felt the inspiration to say: 'Darling, I know there's something wrong. What can I do differently?'"
